PROGRAM NOTES

The Eternal Optimist was commissioned by the Bartlesville (OK) High School Band as a memorial tribute to Mr. Ron Jared, a personal friend of the composer, and former school administrator and dedicated arts supporter. Mr. Jared was known to always have a positive attitude...and was often recognized as an "eternal optimist." This selection portrays that optimism with its uplifting and spirited musical style.

REHEARSAL SUGGESTIONS

Work to achieve a rich and dramatic opening in the first six bars, leading to the "subito" change in tempo and style in m. 7. Make sure the syncopated rhythmic motives and harmonies do not cover the melody beginning in m. 11. Dynamic contrast is important as the woodwinds take prominence at m. 29. At m. 37, the flowing woodwind melodies and harmonies should be balanced with the restated rhythmic melodic lines in the trumpets. The rall. e dim. at m. 51 should be subtle and gradual, leading to the tempo change at measure 53. Flexibility should be exercised from m. 53 - 96 to allow for appropriate interpretation, especially at phrase endings. Work for good balance between melodies and harmonies throughout the Andante Rubato section. Accurate interpretation of the articulation markings is essential throughout. Following the transition and recapitulation (96-136), the piece comes to a rousing conclusion from 136 to the end. Work for good execution of the subito p at m. 140 to provide good contrast and assist in building musical drama to the end.

I hope you enjoy rehearsing and performing The Eternal Optimist!

ABOUT THE COMPOSER

Ed Huckeby is an arts consultant and freelance composer, arranger, conductor and clinician. His career has included roles in higher education and arts administration, most recently serving as President of Southwestern Christian University in Bethany, Oklahoma, until his retirement in 2014. Prior to his appointment at SCU, he was Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and Professor of Music at Northeastern State University-Broken Arrow (OK). Huckeby also served as an arts administrator for Tulsa Ballet Theatre, Inc., and holds the title of Emeritus Professor of Music at Northwestern Oklahoma State University where he served for over two decades as Music Department Chairman and Dean of the Graduate School. He spent eight years teaching instrumental music in the public schools of Oklahoma, where his marching, concert and jazz bands won state and regional acclaim. His success in the public schools led him into the college teaching ranks where he became internationally recognized as an outstanding music educator and composer of almost 200 published works for concert and marching band. Ed's ability to write interesting and accessible instrumental music can be attributed to his experience at a variety of musical levels.

Huckeby's performance background and experience is very eclectic, having been a member of a symphony orchestra (horn), a jazz band (trumpet), and a contemporary Christian quintet (bass guitar, keyboards and vocals), as well as having served regularly as a church organist and pianist. His outstanding contributions to the concert and marching band literature have played an important role in the development of the contemporary band repertoire.

Ed holds a bachelor's degree in music education from East Central University in Ada, Oklahoma, a master's degree in music education from the University of Oklahoma, and a doctorate in administration from Oklahoma State University with additional study at the University of North Texas. He has written music education articles for The Instrumentalist, The American Music Teacher, and The Journal of the International Horn Society, and has held memberships in Music Educators National Conference, Oklahoma Music Educators Association, Oklahoma Bandmasters Association, ASCAP, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and Phi Beta Mu, where he served as a member of the national board of directors and state chapter president. Huckeby was selected as an "Outstanding Young Man in America," is listed in the "International Who's Who in Music," and was inducted into the Oklahoma Bandmasters Association "Hall of Fame" in 1996. He has created over 50 commissioned works and has served as a clinician, adjudicator and conductor for instrumental ensembles around the world, including Japan, Australia, Canada and across the United States.
