THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

March

Louis Panella

Arranged by

Andrew Glover

About the Composer

Pittsburgh native Louis J. Panella (1881-1940) was a composer of marches as well as a professional trumpet player. He performed with a number of orchestras, including the Pittsburgh Symphony, and taught trumpet for many years at the Carnegie Institute of Technology (now Carnegie-Mellon University.) Many of his marches have patriotic titles or references, the most famous of which was the march he composed in honor of The American Red Cross.

About the music

The American Red Cross is a very melodic and musical march, and the careful observance of dynamics will add great contrasts to its performance. Articulations have been added to this arrangement, to clarify a number of conflicts from the original edition. As a general rule, in marches notes should be played with a solid attack, and note values should be somewhat shortened (unless otherwise indicated.)

It is especially important to maintain march style throughout the piece, especially in the softer passages, where many less-experienced players have difficulty sustaining tempo and style.

This march can be performed effectively at a range of tempos, but it is very well suited to the bright tempo indicated.
I hope you enjoy rehearsing and performing The American Red Cross March.

Andrew Glover - the arranger

Andrew Glover's diverse career in music has included successful tenures as educator, composer/arranger, performer, conductor, clinician, and publisher. He joined the staff of the C. L. Barnhouse Company in 1998, and as Executive Vice President is in charge of music production, serves as staff composer-arranger and editor, and manages the business as Chief Operating Officer. A native of the St. Louis area, he was educated in the public schools of Webster Groves, where he was a student of Walter Lathen, Tony Carosello, and Ed Carson. He received a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Central Methodist University, where he studied with Keith House, Ron Anson, and Ronald Shroyer, and did graduate work at Southeast Missouri State University.

As a sophomore in high school, Glover first band arrangement was performed by the school's wind ensemble, and thus began a multi-decade career in composition and arranging. His band works number over 200, many are published by Barnhouse, and have been performed, recorded, and broadcast by bands worldwide.

In college, Glover won a position in the Detroit Concert Band, conducted by Leonard B. Smith, and performed for four seasons on euphonium. He participated in numerous recording sessions with the DCB, including ten phonograph records of "Gems of the Concert Band" and a documentary film soundtrack. For many years he also performed as a soloist and guest artist.

Glover taught briefly in the public schools of Webster Groves, and served for seven years as Director of Bands at Rosary High School in St. Louis. As a guest conductor, clinician, soloist, and speaker he has appeared in over 35 states. He also worked in the private sector for over a decade in association management.

An enthusiast of, and advocate for classic concert band music and history, Glover is not only involved in new music production at Barnhouse, but also oversees the company's 127+ year archive of publications and historical memorabilia, and is frequently involved in band history research projects. He is a member of ASCAP; Association of Concert Bands, where he serves on the advisory council; and is conductor of the Windjammers, Unlimited Education Band. In May 2013 he received the Distinguished Alumni award from Central Methodist University.
