Rehearsal Suggestions

A Glorious Christmas is medley of four traditional Christmas carols: "Joy to the World", "Hark the Herald Angels Sing", "The First Noel", and "Jingle Bells". The overall character of the piece is bright and joyous, with the exception being the quieter and more contemplative "The First Noel."

When rehearsing, strive for balance and blend, to make sure that the melody is always prominent. Rehearse parts with similar rhythms and articulations, to focus on rhythmic uniformity, and consistent articulations. Work with your percussionists so that they can sustain the appropriate tempi in each section of the piece.

As mentioned above, the biggest change in the character of the work occurs from m. 46-70, during "The First Noel", which should be played in a legato, lyrical style. Encourage your band to produce a nice "round" sound, and have them listen as they play, so that they can focus on achieving a good balance and blend between the parts.

Careful attention to all the details: sound, dynamics, articulations, and rhythms, will provide for an exciting and musically satisfying performance, for you, your band, and especially your audience. Have A Glorious Christmas season!

About the Composer

Larry Neeck is an internationally recognized composer, with more than one-hundred fifty works for concert band, jazz ensemble, and orchestra published by C.L. Barnhouse Company and Arco String Publications. He is frequently commissioned to write for schools, bands, and festivals, and often works as a guest conductor and clinician.
