Rising Band Series (Grade levels 1½ - 2)

The Rising Band Series is carefully designed and written to serve the performance needs of the developing band program. In addition to providing quality performance literature for your concert program, each title in the series provides an appropriate musical setting for the conductor/teacher to reinforce musical concepts and skills that have been addressed in the first two years of instruction. Written at two grade levels (1 1/2 and 2), the Rising Band Series provides a variety of musical works that employ the note and rhythm sequence used in most band method books. The Rising Band Series is a sound fundamental approach leading to a command of the concert band.

Rehearsal Suggestions

Eerie Escapade was written in the style of the great film scores composed by Danny Elfman (especially "Beetlejuice" and "Pee-wee's Big Adventure.") I suggest using this music as an opportunity to discuss the important role music can play in film or television, and I encourage your students to write their own stories to accompany Eerie Escapade. Who are the characters? Where are they going? What challenges do they encounter? Most importantly, how does it all end?

Your percussionists will be crucial to the success of this piece! If you do not have enough players to cover every instrument, at least make sure you have assigned students to play the solos in measures 1-4, 12, 16, 20 (timpani, but could be on toms), and 64. Woodwind and brass players encounter both the traditional accent and the "staccato accent;" please make sure that staccato accents are very short! By contrast, please encourage students to play all pitches with tenutos at full value and long (especially count 1 of the main theme at m. 9, 17, etc.). The accidentals and key signature will be challenging for young musicians, especially at m. 25-41, so please be patient and give them lots of reminders!

Thank you for programming this piece, and please contact me through my composer page at barnhouse.com to share the stories your students write for their Eerie Escapade!
