Gary Fletcher was born in Wichita, Kansas and all of his general and musical education was gained in the Wichita Schools. He is a graduate of Wichita State University and was a member of the Wichita Symphony French horn section while in college and later in the sixties.

Fletcher was assistant director of the Sixth Armored Division Band while serving in the U.S. Army. He has taught in the Norwich, Kiowa and Andover, Kansas schools and was coordinator of music in the Newton Kansas schools from 1966 to 1977. He is currently in his ninth year at Pleasant Valley Junior High School in Wichita. He is a founder of the Newton Mid-Kansas Orchestra and co-founded the chamber orchestra, Camerata Musica in Wichita.

Fletcher has been active in music educators organizations from the beginning of his career. He was clinician and host-educator for the MENC-Ford Foundation Contemporary Music Project under the direction of American composer Norman Dello Joio.

Fletcher has been involved in composition and arranging throughout his adult years, but most intensively over the past decade. He has written for a wide range of instrumental groups from symphony orchestra to jazz band and has had a long association with jazz great Clark Terry as composer and arranger of special material for the trumpet-flugelhornist.
