PROGRAM NOTE

Composed for the Boston Pops Brass, American Dances by Robert W. Smith is a multi-movement work based on American popular dances and music. The work was premiered as part of the orchestra's summer season at Tanglewood in the Berkshires of Western Massachusetts.

This movement, entitled Square, is based on the folk, country and bluegrass music of the Appalachian Mountains and the American West. Rich in tradition, Square is a celebration of American folk music and dance for the brass band.

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR AND BRASS BAND

Please note the tempo at 102 beats per minute. In order to stay stylistically accurate, please keep the tempo controlled and not too fast. The ensemble must stay relaxed and light not allowing the tempo to become frantic. The trumpet section will be the best gauge of the final performance tempo based upon the rhythmic density of their parts.

I would suggest introducing the brass band to the rags of Scott Joplin for stylistic reference.

The tuba part, although playable by a single tubist, was written for two players.

I hope you will consider programming other movements of American Dances including Rag and Swing. The multiple movements were written to create a powerful suite for the brass band that connects with audiences worldwide through American popular music.

Best wishes for a wonderful performance!
